Chapter 1: The Beginning

What a nice day with the teams, off doing their own things, working together on fun games. Well, for some, not for team loser. It would all be just so perfect for them; if it wasn't for coiny and firey fighting all the time. You see, coiny and firey have both been enemies with each other since day one.

The two always go on with the slapping, the insults, the annoyance that their team have to deal with. It's basically a regular day to them, yet embarrassing for them. It kinda makes their team look bad. And yet they are again fighting per usual. Over what you may ask? Well, let's just see for ourselves.

"I told you! If you did something we wouldn't have have lost the challenge!" Coiny, who has been blaming firey for the loss of their last challenge.

"If you didnt tell me you could handle it I would've! But you think you are soooo much better than me! When you're not!" Firey claimed, his flames getting higher over anger.

"Am too!" Coiny disagreed. The two went on bickering and fighting like toddlers. While their whole team watched them fight.

"Ugh..." needle groaned, "can someone shut these two up..."

"Good idea" leafy walked close, ready to throw a knife.

"WAIT-" before needle could do anything the knife was thrown between the two; leaving them both to stop.

"What the hell leafy!?" Firey gasped.

"You weren't just gonna shut up by us asking, stay quiet, it really does you a favor" leafy gave firey a smirk. All firey could do is give her a death glare.

"Can you two tryyy to get along?" Pin walked forward. "You two bicker like fucking kids."

"We aren't kids!" firey and coiny shouted. The two looked at each other, it was like bfdi; when the two finally agreed on something.

"Psh" firey looked away, "as if this fucking idiot could ever try."

"OH REALLY? DO YOU WANNA START!" Coiny was fuming at that point.

"ENOUGH!" Needle shouted, "okay...let's try this, leafy, give me the radio."

"WHAT, ARE YOU NUTS?! THESE TWO DUMBASSES WILL JUST BREAK IT!"

"Leafy just give it to me! They won't! They better not..." needle stared at the two with a death glare. She handed the two the radio. "If you to can watch the radio WITHOUT fighting for lets say...3 hours, then that proves us that you two can get along and work from there."

The two just looked at each other, "at this point what choice do we have right?..." firey stated. This was gonna be a bumpy ride.

Two hours go by...of none stop fighting. "You really dont have to do this! You'll just break it!" Firey yelled.

"Oh oh alright! As if you having it will be any better! You'll burn it dumbass!" Coiny shouted. As they argue, they hold on the radio trying to take it from the other. It's like a battle of tug of war, trying to get it to one side. It ended up failing once it was too much for the poor radio. The two slipped badly to the point where they dropped the radio, causing it to break.

"Shit...coiny what did you do!" Firey boiled in anger.

"What did I do!? This is clearly your fault!" There was none stop fighting from the two on who should take the blame. Until leafy walked in.

"My radio..." she looked down at the broken radio. At that point it got both coiny and firey scared.

"L-Leafy I didn't mean to...I-I can fix it up if you want!-"

"As if you can fix anything" coiny scoffed.

"Ugh! Is everything to you just a fight!?"

"WOULD YOU TWO SHUT UP!" The two jumped hearing leafy yell. "So this is what we are gonna do, instead of me killing you both and telling everyone not to recover you two, let's make a deal. I'll let this slide..."

"Wait really!? This is out of character for you leafy" firey gasped.

"I'll do anything just to not get killed by you..." coiny shivered at the thought.

Leafy thought of what the bet would be 'What's something the two would hate....i got it.'

"Alright," leafy started, "convince everyone your dating for at least two weeks, and i won't kill you!"

"WHAT!?" The two were shocked, looked at each other disgusted.

"Leafy cmon! As if i would date this...this fucker!" Firey started complaining.

"Maybe you should've thought about it before breaking my radio firey..." she gave him a death glare. "Listen, if it'll help, I'll throw in 50 bucks."

"There's no wa-"

"DEAL!" Coiny shouted.

"WHAT THE FUCK COINY!?"

"Good to know! You start on Monday, glad we came to an agreement" leafy said as she left.

"LEAFY WAIT- COINY YOU IDIOT! WHAT THE HELL DID YOU GET US IN!?" Firey heated up.

"Shit...you're right...i'm worth more than 50 bucks" he shook his head in disbelief.

"YOU AREN'T EVEN WORTH A SINGLE PENNY! You are such an idiot..." there was no way the two could have backed down from this. Make a deal and stay with it. "I cant believe I have to suffer two weeks with you..." firey sighed.

"I'm sure itll be fineee, on the bright side leafy isnt gonna kill us, right?"

"I'd rather be dead than pretend to date you."

"Whateverrrr, see ya tomorrow dearrr" coiny teased to get firey more pissed off.

"DON'T CALL ME THAT EVER AGAIN" he shouted as coiny left. Firey sighed once more, this should be one heck of a ride.

//authors note:
Hey guys, took me a whole year to do this. Sorry, I was a little more caught up with my fireafy book that I never really took the time to work on this one. But either way I hope you all enjoy this first chapter! I was obviously trying to get this done as soon as possible but I think this should be fun to write about. Slow updates obviously, I wanna put some art in this, as well as work on my other book. Anyways, farewell everyone! Thanks for wanting a whole year xD
Have a great day/night/afternoon

Update

Hey guys, welcome back to my yearly updates
Okay, um, right. So it's obvious I am SUPER inconsistent with this book. So where did I go? Hmmm if you guys weren't aware, I have like, 2 other books I work on. Which leave me to not work on this one. So that's why the inconsistency is there. In general I'm not very consistent with my books, but that's one thing.

Other than that, schools a real pain in the ass. I'm currently a senior trying to finish in a good note, which explains the absence I guess. Nothing really explains it, I just haven't thought much on this book. I know it sucks for everyone who expects a chapter and all, and no, I'm not gonna stop writing this, I just wanted to mention the things that have stopped me from doing so. And not just the fact that I'm not motivated.

I can tell you this, when school is over for me, I'll try making this more consistent. I've focused a lot on my other books and I wanna put this one in priority the way I do with the other books. So yeah, I'm sorry for keeping you guys waiting for a whole year. It really sucks in my part and I feel bad. But some good news for you! I've been doing slow progress for the second chapter, but if I give myself idk, an hour to finish it up, maybe even less, I can have the next chapter done very soon. Because it literally is almost done unless I want to add art to it. But yeah, again, sorry about the yearly updates, and I promise I'll get better with it, hopefully chapter 2 can be released really soon

See you next year ;) (HOPEFULLY NOT)

Chapter 2: One More Day

So, it had been a day since coiny and firey made the bet with leafy to pretend date. Firey was trying to enjoy it before the week stated, but realized he needed coiny to come up with how they were gonna go it. Unfortunately he had to spare a day of his freedom for it. They were at fireys house as he was trying to fix leafys radio. Despite that being the reason coiny and firey are in this mess, he felt it was necessary to fix it since leafy was his friend. Coiny was simply looking around.

"Dont you dare touch my things" firey said, in an irritating tone.

"Wha, well im bored!" Coiny crossed his hands, "this is no fun- what did you even need me for anyways!?"

"Like i said moron. We need to come up with how the hell we are gonna convince everyone we are fucking dating" firey, who was already done with coiny, despite only dealing with him for 5 minutes, said.

Coiny looked to see what firey was doing, "why are you still fixing that?" He pointed out, "that thing is the reason we are in this mess, also I dont really think you can repair that" he laughed. Firey groaned, exhausted of hearing coiny.

"No coiny" firey started saying, "YOUR the reason we are in this mess! And I can fix it! Stop starting fights with me and think for once in your life." Coiny rolled his eyes.

"Fine fineee" he said. "Hmmm" he started thinking of what to do.

...."on second thought dont." Firey said. "Just seeing you try hurts."

"You asked shithead!" He shouted.

"Okay fine! Jeez..." firey went back to fix the radio. As much as he hated the deal leafy had them do, leafy was still fireys friend. He's at least gotta do this for her right?

"We coulddddd....just tell them?" Coiny finally said.

"You're an idiot" firey said, trying to see if the radio will work. "You just think everyone's gonna believe us if we say 'oh yep! We both hated each others guts and now we are together!' You're kidding right?"

"Well then what do you suggest!" Coiny shouted, "you ain't the one throwing ideas here!"

firey thought for a second. "You know the saying that actions speak louder than words?"

"Uh, yeah? But what does this have to do with...no" coiny glared at firey. "Dont tell me your planning to do anything physical..."

"What choice do we have" firey said, turning on the radio. It ended up working, "would you look at that" he said, giving coiny a smug look "I repaired it."

"Whatever" coiny said, rolling his eyes. "Back to the conversation, what exactly is your plan?"

"I don't know, what do couples usually do? Since you've been in more relationships than me" he crossed his hands.

"for the record, by more you mean you've never been in a relationship, right?" Coiny chuckled. Firey heated up in anger. "But couples do a ton of things, holding hands, flirting, kissing, yada yada."

"Ugh, maybe I'll just ask leafy to permanently kill me.." firey said, not wanting to put up with any of this. The door to fireys house immediately opens.

It was leafy, she walking in without warning, "hey you two."

"WOULD YOU STOP WALKING IN LIKE YOU OWN MY HOUSE!?" Firey shouted, leaving leafy with a chuckling response.

"Aw cmon you love it, anyways, hows you 'last day of freedom' going?" She said, staring at coiny and firey.

"Could be a lot better...I didn't have to be here on my last day!" He said, giving firey an angry glare.

"Well the feelings neutral!" Firey stared back at coiny.

Leafy quickly interfered, stepping in the middle of them, "save the make out for tomorrow you two" she laughed as her response pissed them off.

"This bet is bad enough, do you have to say that shit?!" Firey snared.

"That's the point fireballll" she walks into fireys kitchen, grabbing some of his snacks. "So whats the plan?" She says as she stuffs her face with chips.

"That's what we're trying to figure out" both firey and coiny said, they looked at each other. "Stop copying me!"

"Why dont you two just walk around and hold hands tomorrow?" They both turned to leafy.

"You saying that makes me want to throw up..." firey said.

"Not like you have a choiceeee" leafy said, still invading fireys fridge for a drink.

"I hate this...so much."

"It cant be that baddd" coiny insisted.

"Wha- of course it isnt to you! You're the reason we are in this mess!" Firey complained.

"I wouldnt say I am entirely the reason" he said, crossing his arms.

"You both were at reason, now get over it" leafy said, trying to shut them up. "Needle told you guys to take care of my radio, and the first you you two do is destroy it! This was your responsibility, and you failed because of your rivalry!" The two looked down in embarrassment just hearing that.

"Yeah...you're right. Sorry leafy" firey said.

"Yeah..." coiny replied back.

Leafy sighs, "glad you two agree at least. Seems like you've been doing a lot of that lately."

"Yeah I guess so" coiny said, he seems to realize that too. "Guess that means we really are meant to be huhhh" he teases.

"You're a moron!" Firey shouts. "Ugh! I'm taking a break!"

Firey heads out the door clearly upset. "Firey! Wait! I was only kidding!" Coiny shouts, but he doesn't end up going back. "I took it too far again?"

Leafy rolls her eyes, "nah, he's just too sensitive...maybe take it easy on all of those jokes though, you know he can be a little..."

"Angry? Frustrated? A pain in the ass?"

"Okay okay no need to be harsh" she laughs hearing the way coiny talks about firey. "Just do me a favor. Because I know if I tried to tell him hes gonna go on a whole rant. But could you try to get along with him?"

"We always agr-"

"I mean actually doing it this time. No fighting, no bickering, no slapping."

"Leafy, your asking the impossible here" coiny crosses his arms.

Leafy facepalms herself, "I'm serious! You two need to get over this rivalry! If not for the team, then at least for yourselves!"

"Okay okay fine!" Coiny finally said, irritated. "I'll try this time. Geez." He said, just to get over the topic.

Leafy continues adding to the topic "and another thing, don't take things too far with firey. I don't wanna hear anything about him upset because of something YOU did. As his best friend, I have to make sure he's alright."

"You say that as if he didn't ignore you for the longest time." It's true that leafy and fireys friendship was a little wonky. For someone who's been ignored for a long time you would expect leafy to be mad at him and mot even want to be friends with firey again.

"Shut up! Why the hell is that always brought up! We both talked it out!"

"Well yeah but that's because you two had to, you both are on the same team now! So of course you would have to talk it out for the benefit of our team-" coiny stayed silent for a bit. Realizing that firey and leafy had to do that, but him and coiny hadn't even tried for the benifit of the team. "Ohhhhhh, yeah, that's my bad."

"You really are a moron coiny.." leafy facepalmed herself. "Now cmon, you and firey can figure out something tomorrow. Enjoy your 'last day of freedom'" leafy chucked as she grabbed her radio. Both her and coiny walked out of fireys house.

Coiny let out a sigh, "these are gonna be the LONGEST two weeks of my lifeeee."

Leafy laughed. "You'll just have to suck it up Coiny, but so will firey."

Coiny let out a groan. Looks like him and firey have a lot ahead of them for these two weeks. And it all starts tomorrow.

//authors note:
Hey guys, I know the chapter isn't long, especially considering that I haven't done a lot of chapters, but I still hope it's enjoyable. I'm hoping the next chapters will be a bit longer, but because this is before all the plot or whatever this will have to do. Sorry for the lack of updates on this book, the updated chapter has the reason why it's been like that. And most Importantly sorry for not uploading this chapter sooner. The summer has been crazy and now I'm starting school again. I will leave you with this, and not let you wait a year. Thanks for being so patient lovelies!

Chapter 3: Monday

"I don'ttttt want to do thisssssss" looks like Coiny has already started the whining. Coiny and firey's last day of "freedom" has come to an end, as both of them have made it to Monday. Firey, who is already done with Coiny bullshit, slammed the table.

"Would you be quiet already! You're giving me a damn headache! Besides we don't have much of a choice. You and I screwed up" firey crossed his arms.

Coiny perked up, "did you just blame the both of us instead of just me?"

Firey quickly retracted his words, "w-well!- look! Leafys blaming me! So I can't argue the "fact" she has in her head- stop looking at me like that!"

"Psshhh, suuuurrreee~ but um...hey do we have a plan for today?"

"No, we don't. Your dumbass was a huge disturbance and annoying to even plan anything!"

Coiny gasped, looking offended. "So rude! That's not how you should treat your boyfriendddd" he teased.

Firey nearly slapped Coiny, lucky for Coiny he grabbed firey before he got the chance. Firey glared at Coiny, all he did was smirk. "Ugh..." firey put his hand down, this was gonna be a long day.

Both firey and Coiny looked around, "plan?" Coiny asked.

"Uh, okay, if we want this to be believable we need to actually ACT like a couple. Speak your mushy stuff, and let's see how that goes," firey shrugged.

"And if that doesn't work?" Coiny looked rather skeptical about fireys plan.

"Then I have a plan b i do not wanna do...let's hope it doesn't get to that point." Firey grabbed Coinys hand, before Coiny started an argument, he said, "it's JUST to look convincing. No one is just gonna believe sweet words will do the trick."

Coiny sighed, knowing firey was right. The two walked around, already getting stares. Here goes nothing. "Ohhh how sweet of youuu firey! Can't believe how good of a charmer you are!" Coiny stated, acting all swoon when in reality both him and firey wanted to throw up.

"Mhmmm yeppp...totally..." firey...wasn't all too convincing.

Coiny kicked firey a bit, still keeping his swoon act as he whispered to him, "make it more believable."

The could both see leafy in the corner, holding her laughter as she was with needle who was shocked, firey glared at her.

"What are they doing?-" needle seemed confused.

"Pffft-" leafy couldn't even talk from holding in her laughter.

Firey cleared his throat, "just- a lovely day! With...you-"

Coiny facepalmed himself, he whispered, "we really should've rehearsed a script or something-"

"Coiny- I don't think it matters, I think they're buying it-" firey mumbled.

Perhaps not everyone was buying it, but the two were definitely getting stares. Of course their team just seemed more shocked than anyone, except leafy-

"S-So what?? You two are friends now???" Pin questioned.

"Um- well-" firey started.

Coiny quickly interrupted him, "correction, boyfriends~"

"HUH!?" Basically everyone around them shouted. It made both of them nervous.

"Yeah okay- no offense, but I highly doubt that" clock spoke.

"Yeahhh- you guys didn't even get along during Bfdi! And now all of a sudden you're dating??" Pen interrupted.

leafy shrugged, playing along, "yeahhh cmonnn! Besides firey is a guy who hold grudges! I dooouuubt he'd even consider giving Coiny a chance~" firey shot a glare at leafy, leaving her laughing. Of course she had to bring up the arguing they did.

"I hate liars!" Fanny shouted.

"Woah!- hold on! How do you know it's not true! We can change!" Coiny defended.

"I doubt in a few days, I mean the two of you were arguing nonstop the other day" eggy proclaimed.

Coiny was running out of ideas on how to convince everyone, while firey was dreading the fact that he'd have to use his plan B.

Firey let out a sigh, "fine fine, if proof is what you need we can give it." Even leafy looked confused, just what was firey planning?

Coiny mumbled to firey, "what are you gonna do?..."

"Something we both hate." Firey mumbled back. He made Coiny face him, "you're gonna have to really trust me with this."

"Huh? What are you-" before Coiny could finish speaking, firey leaned in and kissed him.

Everyone was quiet, shocked even, leafy started bursting into laughter. The kiss lasted a few seconds, once the both parted from it, Coiny had a dazed expression...until he realized he'd just kissed firey-

"Hold it." Firey murmured, trying to keep the act himself.

Everyone continued to stay in shock, no one was expecting that.

"Yeah- I guess that checks out" snowball said, walking off. From there everyone started walking off in shock.

"I just can't believe it!" Pen said.

"Who would've guessed." Lolipop shrugged.

Once everyone left and both were sure they were alone the two wiped their mouths.

"What the hell firey!" Coiny shouted.

"What!? I had to make it convincing!" Firey shouted back.

"Not that convincing!!"

Leafy walked up to them, "I'll admit I'm pretty shocked you used a kiss to show it. Wasn't expecting that right away."

"YOU WERE EXPECTING THAT!?!?" Both Coiny and firey shouted.

Firey put his hands on his face in frustration. What on earth was he thinking??? "Look! It worked okay?? We wont have to do that again!"

"You didn't have to do it to begin with!" Coiny remarked.

"NO ONE WAS GONNA BELIEVE US COINY."

"IM SURE THEY WOULD'VE AT SOME POINT, FIREY." Coiny got close to fireys face, both angry at each other.

There was a moment of silence on both ends, "are you two gonna kiss again?" Leafy commented. Both Coiny and firey glared at leafy who was snickering at their reaction. "You gotta admit it was pretty funny!"

"LEAFY!!" They both shouted, it caused leafy to chuckle.

Some time passed after the whole situation, both Coiny and firey were now sitting down, a few feet apart from each other. None of them wanted to speak to the other. Firey kept grumbling quietly for most of the time. Coiny looked in fireys direction, letting out a heavy sigh.

Before he knew it, Coiny got up and walked towards firey, sitting down next to him. He began to speak, "look...perhaps we're just destined to hate each other. But we aren't gonna get through these two weeks if we can't put that aside." Firey glanced at Coiny, he knew he was right, for once- "can we just, try to tolerate each other for these two weeks?" Firey just continued to grumble, Coiny let out another sigh, "...I'm sorry for getting mad about the plan, in retrospect it really did work in the end. It was just something I got heated over at the time."

Firey could see a genuine smile of coinys face, not that stupid smirk he'd always see. Firey looked down. In the end Coiny was right, if the two wanted to get through this they'd have to put this whole rivalry aside. "...fine. I'll TRY to be more tolerant...just don't expect too much," firey crossed his arms.

"Wouldn't expect anything more" Coiny laid on the grass, he kicked Firey's leg, chuckling at his own action.

Firey already looked irritated, "what happened to being tolerant!"

Coiny laughed, "don't mean I can't bother you- ow!" Firey seemed to have kicked Coiny back.

The two glared at each other, before laughing together. "I still hate your guts, " firey let out.

"Same here buddy" Coiny chuckled.

Perhaps things won't be as horrible as the two make it out to be.

Authors note//
First day over guys, woahhhh oooo ahhhh
Rest assured I haven't made any of them fall for each other yet. There will obviously be arguing from these idiots, just thought i'd add some heartfelt stuff. I'm making plans on what I wanna do for each day, this was just easy since I did bring up this book itself was inspired by a comic. However I actually have to do the planning now lolz, and I'm having fun thinking of what to make them do. So hopefully that gets me motivated to write for this book, thank you for being patient, I'll keep doing my best to balance college and hobbies/projects, until then enjoy
